

OUTTATOWN PERSONAL REFERENCE FORM

CMU's Outtatown Discipleship School is a mobile community of young disciples. Our desire is to see them grow as disciples of Jesus. Our goal is to help them along in their journey towards: Knowing God, Knowing themselves and Knowing the world. Much of the applicant's time will be spent "on the road", in both dormitory and billeting situations. The educational and adventure experiences are set up for students who are motivated to "ask, seek, and knock".

So it's important for us to evaluate an applicant's fit for the program based on health. Do you have any concerns about this applicant's emotional and mental health to live in such a moving and dynamic environment? Please comment. If there are any concerns, do you feel that they are stable enough to cope with the intensity of the program?
